Applicants are not required to provide information which is prohibited by Federal, State, or Local law. This application is given every consideration, but its receipt does not imply that the applicant has been accepted as a camp worker. Applicants are accepted on a "trial basis" and if, in the final judgment of the camp officials it is found that the applicant/staff worker is not adaptable to the assignment and cannot be reassigned, or that the information given has been misrepresented, the acceptance of this application can be terminated without cause or reason. In addition, investigation will be made as to your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and adaptability to the particular position assigned. All applicants are required to undergo training and orientation provided by the Regional Youth and Discipleship Director's office and under the supervision of the Regional Youth and Discipleship Board.

Statement of Reservation

While no one is rejected to work or attend Church of God youth camps on the basis of race, color, or creed, the Regional Youth and Discipleship Director and Regional Youth and Discipleship Board does reserve the right to accept or reject any application for volunteer work at Church of God youth camps after the reviewing of said application reveals that the services of the applicant would or would not be in the best interest and success of the camp.

Applicant's Statement

The information contained in this application is correct to the best of my knowledge. I authorize any references or churches listed in this application to give you any information (including opinions) that they have regarding my character and fitness for youth camp work. In consideration of the receipt and evaluation of this application by the Church of God, I hereby release to any individual, church, youth organization, charity, employer, reference, or any other person or organization, including record custodians, both collectively and individually, from any and all liability for damages of whatever kind or nature which may at this time result to me, my heirs or family, on account of compliance or any attempts to comply with this authorization. I waive any right that I have to inspect information provided about me by any person or organization identified by me in this application.

Should my application be accepted, I agree to be bound by the bylaws and policies of the Church of God and to refrain from any unscriptural conduct in the performance of my services on behalf of the church. I also agree to participate in the MANDATORY training and enhancement programs (on Monday, August 6, 2018) provided by the Regional Youth and Discipleship Director's office in preparation of my participation. Furthermore, I will not leave camp until my responsibilities are completed on the last day of camp.

I have carefully read the foregoing release and know the contents thereof and I sign this release on my own free act. This is a legally binding agreement which I have read and understand.
